

We are pleased to have been named as a leader in people management practice globally, having been shortlisted in the Gold Employer of the year category in The Investors in People Awards 2018.

The Awards celebrate the best people management practices amongst Investors in People accredited businesses. This year, Winners will be celebrated at a spectacular awards ceremony and dinner at the Roundhouse, London on 28 November 2018.

The Finalists represent the best performers in people management worldwide. The 13 Awards categories recognise the organisations that have achieved the highest standards. There are a range of Awards categories, focusing on the main elements of what it means to be an Investor in People, from Excellence in Leadership and Management to Excellence in Social Responsibility, Leader of the Year and Best Newcomer.

The Investors in People Awards provide the opportunity to benchmark against high performing organisations on a global scale. First Choice Housing Associations Director of Corporate Services, Donna Lloyd-Williams said

“It is a privilege to be shortlisted for this award; a clear indication of the dedication and hard work the team has invested in the business. We are a values led organisation with tenants and staff at the heart of all we do”.

Paul Devoy, Head of Investors in People, said: “The quality of entries for The Investors in People Awards never ceases to amaze me, and 2018 has been no different. We are privileged to work with thousands of incredible organisations and it brings me great pride and pleasure that we are able to highlight and celebrate this excellence through our Awards.”
